

Pollination Symposium

Saturday March 27th

presentations, booths, silent auction and pollination items for sale

Register in advance for $30 (payable in cash at the event) or pay $35 at the door

Lunch is included

- 9:00: Registration and silent auction begins
9:30: Official welcome
Vicki Beard, Pollination Guelph and City Councillor for Ward 2
- 9:40: Eastview Pollination Park and other
Pollination Guelph projects
Kevin Butt, Pollination Guelph
- 10:00: The Butterflies of Waterloo Region and their habitats
Jessica Grealey, Terrestrial and Wetland Biologist
- 10:30: Health Break
- 11:00: Gosling Gardens
Sean Fox, Guelph Arboretum
- 11:30: Design plans for the Pickering Nuclear Facility's landfill site
Ana Cruceru, School of Landscape Architecture
- 11:45: Design plans for the City of Guelph's Well
Houses
Kendra Labrosse and Patricia Gooch, School of Landscape Architecture
- 12:00: Lunch and silent auction bidding
- 1:00: Restoration of Prairie Landscapes
Mathis Natvik, Natvik Ecological
- 1:30: Canadian Pollination Initiative's Projects and Initial Results
Dr. Peter Kevan, CANPOLIN
- 2:00: Health Break
- 2:30: The ALUS (Alternative Land Use Services)
Project
Bryan Gilvesy, ALUS Demonstration Farm
- 3:00: Activities at the Ignatius Farm
Lorne Jamieson, Ignatius Farm Manager
- 3:30: Silent Auction Conclusion
Final remarks

Location: Orchard Park Office
Centre at Ignatius Centre
5420 Hwy 6 North, Guelph

Pre-registration is encouraged.

Please send an e-mail with the participant's names to:
pollinationguelph@gmail.com.

For more information, visit us at www.pollinationguelph.ca.

This event is a fundraiser for Pollination Guelph and the Eastview Pollinator Park.